NOTE.

Dated 3rd December 1915.

Mr. B.Tirunarayanan, B.A., a student of the Indian Institute of Science, saw me this morning with a letter of introduction from Dr. Hay, (enclosed) and represented that a junior of his in the Institute was given a scholarship and his claims thereto were overlooked. He wants the matter reconsidered.

2 I shall be obliged if the Secretary, E.& A., will kindly put up a note on the representation. The matter may then be considered informally, in Council.

To my mind there is only [illegible] what is called "fortune". Thirumangam applied in 1913 & was not given a Schp. Mr B Sastri applied in 1915 & got me. It is very hard we should remember the recent order of Govt's Government to [illegible] Education.

8 When Mr. Srinivasayya applied for a scholarship it was not sanctioned as funds were not available. A scholarship was sanctioned in 1915 for Mr. B. Venkatrama Shastri as savings were expected from foreign scholarships. We had no information whether Mr. Srinivasayya was still at the Indian Institute of Science or had completed his studies. The presumption is that a student who has practically completed his course cannot be much in need of it towards the end. There can be no question of any unfair preference of the latter candidate under the circumstances. The candidate may be informed that the scholarship was awarded to Mr. Venkatramana Shastri as he was a first year student.

Mr. Tirunarayanan who is a third year's student in the Department of Electro-Technology in the Indian Institute of Science has renewed his application for a scholarship. When he applied for a scholarship in 1913, his application had to be refused as funds were not available. Recently a scholarship was granted to Mr. Venkatarama Sastri.

2. The case was considered in Council and the Council are of opinion that a scholarship may be granted to the applicant from the 1st January 1916 until the completion of the third year's course.

The Financial Secretary is not in favour of awarding the scholarship on the ground that the scholarship is not based on any definite scheme.

3. The whole subject of placing scholarship for post-graduate study will have to be thoroughly revised and placed on a proper basis as soon as some decision is arrived at regarding the University Scheme. Meanwhile it will be necessary to deal with each case on its merits.

4. The resolution of the Council may be approved.

Dear Sir M. Visvesvaraya,

The bearer of this note, Mr. M.B.Tirunarayanan, B.A., who is one of our 3rd year students, informs me that you have kindly granted him an interview to-morrow in connection with his application for a Mysore Government scholarship. Mr. Tirunarayanan is a thoroughly satisfactory student, and I have no hesitation in saying that he deserves every encouragement. He informs me that owing to his father's being incapacitated by illness during the last few months, he finds himself unable to continue his studies after Christmas, unless aided by a scholarship. This, I trust, he will be successful in obtaining.

Yours sincerely,
